

Physician Recruitment Committee reports successful negotiations

An ad-hoc Physicians Recruitment Committee was formed to look into acquiring another doctor for the Town of Elk Point, as the Town had been reduced to one full time active doctor. Members of the Committee are:

Chairman - Ed Buck, Mayor, Town of Elk Point
Member - Ray Danyluk, Reeve, County of St. Paul
Member - Gerald Krankowsky, Councillor, County of St. Paul
Member - Danny Povaschuk, Councillor, Town of Elk Point
Member - Ron Smith, Councillor, Town of Elk Point
Member - Barb Kaufman, Coordinator of Clinical Health Services, Elk Point

Member - Doug McPherson, Druggist, Elk Point
Member - Dr. Jonathan Adams, Dentist, Elk Point
Member - Dr. Drew Ramful, Physician, Elk Point
Member - Larry Demchuk, Realtor, Elk Point
Member - J. Curt Svendsen Sr., Town Manager, Elk Point

Over the past few months the Committee has been active with the Lakeland Regional Health Authority in negotiating assistance in a variety of areas.

The negotiations have been successful in the following areas:

RENOVATIONS TO THE OLD NURSES RESIDENCE AND THE DOCTORS CLINIC It was necessary to find accommodations for a Locum (a doctor that comes in on a casual basis) for weekends and longer periods when necessary.

The Committee and the RHA have reached an agreement to renovate the nurses residence and upgrade the Doctors Clinic on a sharing basis with the participating communities of: Town of Elk Point, County of St. Paul, County of Vermilion River, MD of Bonnyville and County of Two Hills. The Committee sees a definite need for these renovations not only for the present doctor but for future doctors as well.

RHA asks Minister of Health to consider Elk Point as an emergency site

The RHA has applied to the Minister of Health, the Honorable Shirley McClellan to consider Elk Point as an emergency site under "Part V" of the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons, a Special Register for Medical Licensure. This will mean that should the RHA and the Committee's advertisements attract a doctor from another country where its medical education is on a par with the Standards of Canada and the Province of Alberta that a doctor will be able to go into practice without having to serve an apprenticeship.

The RHA are participating in the Rural Physician Locum Program and the Expanded Weekend Locum Program. The Town of Elk Point is already benefitting from this program as a doctor will be coming to our Health Centre every second weekend until we have located a permanent doctor.

The RHA have agreed to look after the advertising for a doctor.

The Chairman of the Committee, Mayor Ed Buck, was recently advised by the Minister of Health, the Honorable Shirley McClellan, that he has been appointed to the Regional Health Authority Nominating Committee, effective May 1, 1996.

Mayor Buck will be joining the Committee to assist in the selection of members to the Regional Health Authorities.

LIONS JOURNEY FOR SIGHT -- Twenty six people and seven dogs took part in the annual Journey For Sight sponsored by the Elk Point and District Lions Club. Dave Yake took home the trophy for the most funds raised by an individual, E-Can Oilfield Services representative Candace Ference accepted the Oil Patch Challenge trophy, and Katie and Kristin Campbell accepted the School Challenge award. A total of $2771.50 was raised by the 10 km walkathon, including $25 which was pledged for Koko, Terry and Jerry Kopeck's dog. Marshall Kachmar was the oldest walker taking part, while Terri White was the youngest. Lyle Frisby and Rocky Botting were the fastest male walkers, while Addie Yonelunias was the first lady to complete the course, which started at the curling rink and ended at the Recreation Park gazebo, where a wiener roast and refreshments awaited the walkers. THE FINISHING TOUCH -- the long-awaited statue of a Legion member remembering his fallen comrades was set atop the Elk Point cenotaph late Friday. The sculpture is the creation of St. Paul artist Herman Poulin.

Art show again a great success

Northern Expressions Art Club's second annual art show and sale this past weekend was an outstanding success, with 28 exhibitors and a good crowd of viewers in attendance.

The art on display varied from pen and ink, watercolors, pastels, oils and acrylics to carving on antlers and soapstone, ceramics, clay, woodwork, cement and whiteware.

Artists came from Marwayne, Myrnam, Derwent, Vermilion, Grand Centre, Kitscoty, St. Paul, Vincent Lake and Consort, Alberta, Medstead, Lashburn and Maidstone, Saskatchewan to join ten local exhibitors in the show, which was held at the Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre.

The event started with a very successful wine and cheese party on Friday evening, which had approximately 170 people on hand, and continued to draw considerable public interest on Saturday and Sunday.

Everything from scenery to flowers to still life, from portraits to wildlife to action scenes found its way into the display of almost 180 items, and viewers found many treasures of all kinds to delight their senses. Photos on Page 4.

Fun and Furry Horse Show results

Elk Point Agricultural Society's Fairgrounds and Livestock Division held their annual Fun and Furry Horse Show on Sunday, April 28, with an excellent turnout of over 50 entries. The show was once again sponsored by the Tall Horse Saddlery, Edmonton, with Duane Warren on hand to present the prizes.

Ashley Larson collected the most points in the show aboard Tivio for the Junior High Point Award saddle blanket. Amanda Ferris was the runner-up in the Junior division on Bahias Bandito. Marion Ryan won the Senior High Point Award blanket, riding Panda, with Faye Stone on Birch Valley Commandi the runner-up in that category.

Louise Clennett's Snowflake was named the Furriest Horse in the show, earning her a t-shirt and halter from critters Livestock and Pet Supply and a gift certificate from Tall Horse Saddlery.

Additional sponsorship came from Cobra Energy Consultants and the Livestock and Fairgrounds Division.

Spring cleaning makes us smile

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

Today is May 7th and it is Spring. We have had a long winter and we are so glad Spring is here. It is time to get outside — do our yard work and enjoy just being able to be outdoors. It is also a time to "Spring Clean" inside our homes. Have you ever wondered why we do that?

From the American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, the definition for Spring is as follows: "to move upward or forward in a single quick motion; leap. To appear or emerge suddenly. ... to release from a trap. ... the season of the year, occurring between winter and summer, during which the weather becomes warmer and plants revive, ... popularly considered to comprise March, April and May." Then I looked up the definition for cleaning from the same dictionary. Cleaning basically meant... "to get rid of dirt or other impurities."

So, that is why we "Spring Clean" — we leap forward with quick motions to get rid of dirt and other impurities because it is the Spring Season of the year during March, April and May.

We have had a few calls to our office from people who have told us they provide cleaning services and we have also had people call our office asking if we know of anyone who would offer these services. We have appreciated being able to give out information to help people with their "Spring Cleaning."

"Spring Cleaning" also makes us so very happy to look, smell and see the end product. It is a good feeling. In fact I have noticed people smile more. It's spring and we are happy it is here. I found the following poem that talks about a smile.

SMILE

Have you tried out your smile today?

To light your steps along the way?

It's mirrored in each face you meet

On byway, path and city street.

Have you tried out your smile today?

A smile that's sunny, bright and gay,

That helps to lift somebody's grief,

And brings to pain some small relief?

Have you tried out your smile today?

If not, you should without delay.

You'll find your heart is gladdened, too,

When someone else smiles back at you.

—Verna Young.

Letter to the Editor

Thanks for sharing talents

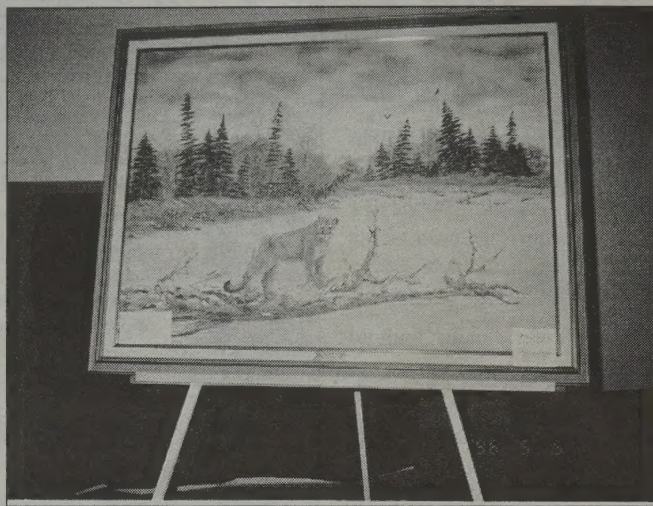

Dear Editor:

We wish to express our admiration and gratitude to the participants of the Northern Expressions Art Club's Show held here in Elk Point. It requires a great deal of courage to place very personal creations for public viewing and scrutiny.

Thank you to each of you for allowing us the opportunity to enjoy your wonderful works of art. We continue to marvel at the talents displayed in each piece. The quality of your work is just outstanding. With each visit to the show we discovered more details and nuances to explain over and appreciate.

We wish you continued enjoyment in your varied artistic pursuits as well as continued success in all future endeavors.

Response was so good that a later course is also being planned.

Nutrition Notes

Are you an apple or a pear?

By Shelley Miller-Hertes

Registered Dietician

Elk Point Health Centre

Everyone knows that excess weight is bad for your health. But research has shown that "where" the excess fat is stored on the body is a key indicator of future health problems.

Apple-shaped people store body fat around the abdomen and chest, surrounding internal organs, such as the heart.

Pear-shaped people store fat on the hips and thighs, just below the surface of the skin. Excess fat stored in the lower body is not necessarily a risk to one's health.

Apples have a higher risk for heart disease, stroke, diabetes, high blood pressure, and gall bladder disease.

To determine if you are an apple or a pear, try this simple waist-to-hip measurement:

1. Measure your waist at the smallest part.

Waist = _____ inches.

2. Measure your hips at their widest point.

Hips = _____ inches.

3. Divide your waist measurement by your hip measurement.

WHR = _____

4. Assess your health risk"

Lower risk — WHR less than .08 for women

WHR less than 1.0 for men.

Higher risk — WHR greater than .08 for women.

WHR greater than 1.0 for men.

If you are an apple with a higher WHR, consider talking to a dietician about making changes in your eating habits and talk to a fitness instructor about increasing your level of physical activity. If you are a pear with a healthy weight, focus on eating well, being active, and feeling good about yourself.

Canada Health Day, May 12, proclaimed in Elk Point

WHEREAS Canada Health Day, co-sponsored by the Canadian Public Health Association and the Canadian Healthcare Association, provides a focus each year for celebrating the partnership that exists between consumers and health care facilities and agencies across the country, and

WHEREAS Canada's health care system is undergoing a process of renewal, including fiscal restraint and restructuring, which calls for new partnerships among providers of care and the community, and WHEREAS Canada Health Day encourages a renewed sense of partnership between consumers, health agencies and governments to meet the challenges of the 21st century together, and

WHEREAS the 1996 theme,

"A New Perspective on Health" symbolizes the new perspective on health which encompasses all the factors impacting on the health and well-being of individuals and society as a whole, and

WHEREAS Canada Health Day has come to be recognized as one of Canada's premier events focusing attention on our health care system and helping health units and community health organizations establish links and share visions of health and health care with their local communities,

THEREFORE be it resolved that I, Ed Buck, Mayor of Elk Point, do hereby proclaim May 12, 1996 Canada Health Day in Elk Point, Alberta.

V. McFadyen marks 80 years

Longtime Elk Point resident Violet McFadyen celebrated her eightieth birthday on April 20, when a large group of friends and relatives gathered at the Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre for an afternoon of entertainment and visiting.

The program, MC'd by Mrs. McFadyen's daughter, Myrna Fox, started with music and song provided by Don Conrad, John Bennett and the Coma family, former residents of the area. Hazel Hannah read a most appropriate poem.

Mayor Ed Buck presented a plaque and congratulations on behalf of the Town. Sid Holthe spoke on Mrs. McFadyen's many efforts on behalf of the Seniors, and presented scrolls on behalf of MLA Paul Langevin, Governor General Gordon Towers, Premier Ralph Klein, MP Deborah Grey and Prime Minister John Chretien.

More of Mrs. McFadyen's favorite old time music, along with special poems read by former neighbor Bernice Capjack-Hugo and by Mrs. Fox, were enjoyed by all.

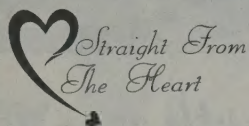

Mrs. McFadyen thanked all the creative and talented people who contributed toward the very special entertainment, and to her family and friends for their attendance at the celebration.

Thank You

I would like to thank everyone who helped make my 80th birthday such a memorable occasion. Special thanks to all who came to my party at the Pioneer Circle, visited at my home, phoned and for the beautiful cards, gifts and flowers. I will always cherish the beautiful memories and many kindnesses.

What's news at the library?

A treasure trove of new adult books

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

So many new books have come in recently that I fear I am running behind. This week we have a treasure trove of adult books.

Danielle Steel's latest is called Malice. Grace Adams is brutally attacked on the night of her mother's funeral and winds up in prison. She must come to grips with her past as she embarks on an exciting career in New York and she reaches out to others who suffer abuse.

Hope in the Desperate

Hour by David Adams Richards follows the lives of the Shackle family and the people of the small New Brunswick town in which they live as a crisis develops one Easter. A multilayered work from one of Canada's foremost writers.

Dance for the Dead by Thomas Perry introduces us to Native American heroine Jane Whitfield whose profession is helping fugitives disappear and begin new lives under safe identities. Jane now comes to the aid of two such fugitives who have lived for years under false identities, an innocent child and a not-so-innocent woman.

In Misselthwaite by Susan Moody, the three children who entranced readers in The Secret Garden are all grown up and facing the challenges of World War I, London in the Twenties, and India under the Raj, but always coming back home to their garden in Yorkshire.

When Laura is informed that her beloved cottage home is to be demolished to make way for a new road, she sets out to defend her home and discovers that nothing, including her life, is what it seems in Laura's Way by Beryl Kingston.

David Eddings "The Belgariad" series continues with Queen of Sorcery, Magician's Gambit and Castle of Wizardry. Garion and his band of heroes continue in their quest to find the Orb and fulfill the prophecies.

I would like to thank everyone who came to Storytime's Surprise Birthday Party. It was my birthday and we celebrated (so I got to make the kind of cake I liked).

I would also like to thank everyone who filled in for me so I could attend the Alberta Library Conference in Jasper. Tune in to this space next week for my impression of this year's conference (perhaps even a top ten list).

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MICHELE! The Storytime crew enjoyed a Surprise Birthday Party --- the surprise was that it was librarian Michele Ducek's birthday.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of SINGER, Ricky

My world seems so incomplete without your loving touch, words of encouragement, scent of your cologne.

You taught me to love, to forgive and to respect. How could I ever thank you now. You left me two sons, two angels and with them, I followed you to your final resting place.

I watched as they slowly put you there, I cried for many days and waited many days, but, you never returned.

Two years later I think I'm ready to say "Rest well...my love."

And when our sons ask me "What was Daddy like?"

I'll start by saying, "Well...he was one of a kind."

Sadly missed by
